Farmingville, NY - On May 1, Councilman Kevin LaValle attended the Town's Senior Citizen Division annual May Rally celebration at the Mill Pond Country Club. At the event, the Councilman spoke with many of the seniors and handed out the new information cards that include a listing of many of the Town services available to seniors, including the Jitney, Home Delivered Meals, Repair Service and Star Program Deductions,

Councilman LaValle said, "Our senior clubs perform an important role in the community and serve as a valuable support system for so many of our residents. I thank them for their hard work and dedication to helping senior citizens throughout the Town of Brookhaven."
